United States Attorney Deborah R. Gilg announced that on September 1, 2011, a seven-count indictment was unsealed charging Lisa Ann Rosenberg, 26, of North Platte and Megan Elizabeth Miller, 18, whose last known address was in Denver, Colorado, with conspiracy to distribute cocaine base and powder cocaine between April 26, 2011, and June 14, 2011.

Rosenberg was also charged with four counts of distributing and possession with intent to distribute cocaine base in May and June of 2011. Rosenberg and Miller were charged together with one count of distribution and possession with intent to distribute powder cocaine and one count of distribution and possession with intent to distribute cocaine base

The conspiracy charge and four of the distribution charges each carry possible penalties of not less than five years nor more than 40 years in prison, fines of up to $5 million, and terms of supervised release following the prison terms of not less than four years. The two remaining charges each carry possible penalties of up to two 20 years, fines of up to $1 million dollars, and supervised release terms of not less than three years.

Rosenberg was arrested in North Platte on August 30, 2011, by members of the CODE Task Force. Rosenberg appeared in federal court in Lincoln on September 1, 2011. She was ordered held without bond. Her next court appearance is scheduled for trial beginning on November 7, 2011.

A warrant has been issued for Miller. Miller's current whereabouts are unknown.

This case was investigated by the CODE Task Force which is made up of law enforcement agencies throughout a 22-county area in west-central/southwest Nebraska and includes the North Platte Police Department, Dawson County Sheriff's Office, Lincoln County Sheriff's Office, Red Willow County Sheriff's Office, Frontier County Sheriff's Office, Nebraska State Patrol, Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), Drug Enforcement Administration (DEA), and Homeland Security Investigations (HSI).
